

Donald Davidson

Former Indianapolis Motor Speedway Historian Donald Davidson spent the last 50 years as the host of The Talk of Gasoline Alley at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway during the month of May, answering your questions of a nostalgic nature about the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and profiling past drivers on The Fan. The program airs weeknights 8pm-9pm during the month of the Indy 500.

Donald was the only full-time historian at any motor sports facility in the world. He has been broadcasting The Talk of Gasoline Alley show since 1966. On May 27th, 2010, Davidson was inducted as a member of the Auto Racing Hall of Fame at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

